

Marsha
Diane
Arnold

Author Marsha Diane Arnold Visits (Name of School)

On Day and date here, Name of School here is delighted to have author Marsha Diane Arnold visit our school. The media has described her as a “born storyteller” and “the writer of children’s books adults can’t wait to read to kids and grandkids.” Her books have been called “funny”, “wildly imaginative”, and “uplifting.”

If you’d like to purchase Lost. Found. and/or The Pumpkin Runner for your child or a friend, please fill out this form and return it with a check to your child’s teacher by (date).

Write clearly the first name/s of the person/s to whom you’d like Marsha to autograph the book.

Visit Marsha’s website, <http://www.marshadianearnold.com>, to learn more about her books.

Lost. Found. MARSHA DIANE ARNOLD ILLUSTRATED BY MATTHEW CORDELL	LOST. FOUND. The wind blows Bear’s scarf away, but it’s soon found...and lost again..by a series of animals who discover ingenious ways to use it. Will the red scarf ever find it’s way back to Bear? A story of conflict, resolution, and community. Called “a masterpiece”... “a small miracle of a book in which two words lead readers on an epic, heroic journey.” “half nature documentary, half Marx brothers” – Publishers Weekly starred review. A Junior Library Guild selection Starred reviews from Publishers Weekly, School Library Journal, Bulletin of Center for Children’s Books	$	AUTOGRAPH TO:
---	--	-----------	-----------------------------

The Pumpkin Runner Joshua Summerhayes Illustrated by WILLIAM GIBSON	THE PUMPKIN RUNNER Joshua Summerhayes, an Australian sheep rancher, enters a 500 mile race with his dog, despite people laughing at his strange ways. Based on a true story. Smithsonian Notable book. “a happy surprise, enthralling oil-on-canvas illustrations and a good-for-the-soul lesson”	$	AUTOGRAPH TO:
---	--	-----------	-----------------------------

Your Child’s Name:	Total Number of Books:
Teacher’s Name: Room Number:	Total Amount Enclosed: