

HOW TO ORDER BOOKS FOR MARSHA DIANE ARNOLD'S VISITS

You may obtain my books from a local children's bookseller or my publishers. A local bookseller may or may not be able to give you a discount, but they will sometimes offer to deliver the books and/or come to your school to handle sales. They will also return unsold books. Call your local bookseller to see what services they can provide.

You can order books directly from my publishers at a 40% discount. They will accept returns of unsold books, but you'll need to pack them and pay return shipping.

If possible, books should be ordered 6 weeks prior to my visit. However, if needed, my publishers can usually obtain books for you in much less time. Sending each student home with a book order form is a good way to determine approximately how many books you will need, but there will always be last minute orders. You'll want to order extra books. It's usually a good idea to send the book order form home at least twice, early in the planning and closer to the visit. A book order form is downloadable from my site (www.marshadianearnold.com) under "Author Visits".

To get the most from my visit, read my books before Author Day. Ideally, each student should hear or read at least several of my books and complete an individual or class project based on them. The more a student interacts with a book, the more excited they'll be and the more they'll learn when I visit. At my website there are also suggestions for classroom activities.

If there are problems in ordering or in obtaining a book, please contact me at "Write Marsha" on my website.
